The Rebel Spreadeagle.

NEW ORLEANS, September 8.—A Jacksonville special says: Nothing favorable to the story of fever spreading with alarming rapidity is known to-day, and no outlet for the rumor exists. All day quite a crowd has been in front of the Board of Health office, and the greatest anxiety is manifested. The Board of Health has issued a statement denying the existence of any fever other than malarial.

[illegible], Fla., September 8.—[illegible] hours.

The Rumor Credited.

WASHINGTON, September 8.—While the State Department has received no official information on the subject, it is known that Consul Hanna, at Canton, cabled Assistant Secretary of State Rives early today that he was pressed to double the tariff on the staple exports of the treaty trouble. Nothing could be said as to the details of the affair.

Congressman "Bill" Scott will be, after all, a candidate for re-election to congress. He is unable to find his name on an endorsement of coal miners uncomfortable.

The most plausible explanation of the heavy republican vote in Vermont is that the democrats are all voting the republican ticket. This is a hopeful sign for New York.

It is said several of our druggists are selling whiskey as a syrup from the soda fountains. If so, our police force ought to stop it. If a druggist is caught, he should be deprived of his permit. The ordinance is too liberal to permit any such violations.

Among the many good features of the Mills bill is the repeal of the tax of $2.00 per year on the retail liquor dealer. There are now nearly 200,000 of these dealers who pay almost $5,000,000 into the treasury. The saloon keepers will appreciate this, but the tax payers will not. All the tax that can be raised from tobacco and liquors should be continued.

The press all over the state endorses the republican convention. This is the first republican convention to nominate a full state ticket since 1882 that has put a ticket in the field that satisfied all factions in the republican party. There is no possibility of the ticket of a single candidate on the democratic ticket. It is useless for the party to hold a convention.

Myron Reed is not likely to be the democratic candidate for governor. If he be, the state is to be congratulated. It would have in a mortifying spectacle [illegible] the state for office. The "person" in politics is all right if he is in politics [illegible] but we do not like to see that honest methods are used. But when a person is in politics to get office he is disgusting.

The man in Indiana who is at the bottom of the movement to misrepresent Hon. [illegible] by distorting the facts is Leon O. Bailey of Indianapolis. At the time of the prosecution of the tally sheet forgers Mr. Bailey was secretary of the state democratic committee, and he drew [illegible] Cleveland at that time.
